Whereas, CCRH, through its network of 27 Institutes/Units across the country has been conducting various kinds of research on scientific lines in the field of Homoeopathy since 1978. The Council is engaged in conducting and promoting research in various areas of Homoeopathy through its Institutes/Units as well as providing financial assistance to ad-hoc research studies submitted by individual scientists from different parts of the country through an expression of interest under its fundamental and collaborative research program. The Council's priorities coincide with National health priorities such as control and management of communicable diseases and research on major non-communicable diseases like cancer, cardiovascular disease, and diabetes, other metabolic and haematological disorders, mental disorders, drug research etc.

1. Scope of work:

Whereas, both parties viz. CCRH and SVDU realize that in the current context, working together is important to promote science using facilities and expertise at both organisations. Therefore, both parties are agreeable to entering into a MoU for working and cooperating with each other and using their respective expertise, knowledge, and resources for mutual benefit.

2. Principle of Cooperation:

CCRH and SVDU agree to develop their academic/research links, especially in the field of Medical Sciences, Health Care, research in Public Health, Life Sciences and Social Sciences under the principles of mutual understanding and common interest, mutually complementing other activities.

3. Objectives of cooperation shall be:

- I. To promote institutional and individual contacts among scientists of both institutions.
- II. To provide opportunities for scientists to make optimal use of the expertise and facilities available in both organizations through training, exchange of thoughts and ideas by brainstorming sessions / seminars / workshops and meetings etc.
- III. To work jointly in areas of common research interest at national and international levels. This includes the preparation of proposals and their implementation as per the National Health Priorities and strategy document of the organisations.
- IV. To support the exchange of academic, research and training material.
- V. To encourage any other activities that both institutions agree upon for mutual benefit.

For each identified joint project envisaged to be taken up in collaborative mode, a separate MoU reflecting the details of the study, team, mutual responsibilities, financial agreements etc. shall be signed.

4. Duration and Termination of the MoU

- I. This MoU is effective from the date of signatures by the authorities of CCRH and authorities of SVDU and shall be valid from the date of execution by the Parties and shall remain in effect initially for FIVE YEARS, and thereafter can be renewed.
- II. The MoU may be amended at any time by written mutual consent of both parties.
- III. This MoU may be terminated by either party by the provision of written notice of termination not less than six months prior to the desired termination date. However, both parties agree that all continuing joint research projects, and training to scientists' obligations to scientists, funding bodies or other entities are met in full subsequent to the notice of termination.
- IV. The termination of this MoU shall not affect the rights or obligations of either party regarding any binding offer or firm obligation approved and agreed to by either party prior to the termination date.
